

Objectives

- a) To promote, organize, execute and facilitate access to environmentally sustainable housing and provision of basic services like sanitation, water, electricity etc. to improve the living standards of the poor.
- b) To promote, organize, execute poverty mapping, research and documentation in connection with housing and infrastructure related activities.
- c) To promote, organize and encourage involvement of all stakeholders to facilitate better housing and an improved environment for the poor.
- d) To promote, organize and execute training programs related to housing, basic services and green/clean environment to ensure optimum utilization of resources.
- e) To assist, help and support people affected by natural as well as man made calamities of all kinds.
- f) To help, develop and build capacities of the underprivileged to negotiate and utilize resources optimally to fulfill their needs including community development.
- g) To promote, help and train the poor to enhance livelihood and income generating skills and activities to enable them raise their standard of living.
- h) To promote the acquisition and spread of knowledge and skills among individuals, groups, organizations and communities.
- i) To promote safe and healthy houses and environment for the underprivileged, especially women and children.
- j) To experiment with, evolve, develop and disseminate information through communication media and methods, especially having to do with housing and living environments, which promote the objectives of The Society.
- k) To undertake research which is meaningful to both the public at large and the unprivileged people in particular.
- l) To collaborate with and promote a network of like-minded persons, groups, organizations and communities at the local, state, national and international levels.
- m) To undertake advocacy initiatives to facilitate modifications and amendments in laws and policies relevant to housing and infrastructure to ensure better governance.
- n) To contribute and encourage other organizations of a similar nature to further any of the objects of The Society.
- o) To carry out activities of charitable nature which will help for eradication of poverty, medical and educational facilities to the needy and poor section of the society.
- p) To help to create awareness thereby leading to impact governance and government policies and to undertake advocacy for housing and housing related activities for the needy and poor section of the society; to ensure better governance in this regard.